INTERVAL INTERNATIONAL WELCOMES CLUB MUNDO IMPERIAL AND THREE LANDMARK ACAPULCO PROPERTIES TO ITS EXCHANGE NETWORK

MIAMI, Fla., September 19, 2022 – Interval International, a leading worldwide provider of vacation services, and Mundo Imperial Entertainment & Hospitality, an innovator in travel, convention and entertainment destinations and subsidiary of Grupo Autofin Mexico, have announced the long-term affiliation of Club Mundo Imperial and three iconic properties in Acapulco to Interval’s global resort network.

“Mundo Imperial Entertainment & Hospitality has become an important player in Mexico’s tourism sector,” said Marcos Agostini, Interval’s senior vice president of global business development. “This is an exciting time for their business, and we look forward to increasing their value proposition and supporting their success. Club Mundo Imperial is an excellent addition to the Interval network, giving our members the chance to discover Acapulco with all of the memorable experiences available at their resorts.”

Club Mundo Imperial encompasses three premier travel, convention, and entertainment destinations – Palacio Mundo Imperial, Princess Mundo Imperial, and Pierre Mundo Imperial. The oceanfront properties offer elegant design, modern luxury, and superior service in addition to a multitude of top amenities – including fully equipped fitness centers, world-class spa, two 18-hole golf courses, numerous pools, and tennis courts.

In addition to upgrading its Acapulco properties, Mundo Imperial Entertainment & Hospitality has introduced several world-class amenities. These include Expo Mundo Imperial Entertainment, an exhibit and convention complex; XTESEA - a 5,900 feet-long “above ocean” zip-line; the new Scala Beach Club; Forum Mundo Imperial Theater & Concert Hall, which seats up to 4,500 fans; and Arena GNP Seguros, a multi-use complex that hosts major concerts and sporting events such as the Mexico Tennis Open.
